"Living Green in the Park 2010" ... The 18th annual Realtor[®] event will provide a wealth of information on the many significant activities happening in our city of nearly 74,000 residents. The event will provide timely, factual and accurate information to assist you in marketing and selling homes in Brooklyn Park.

- Dan Bartholomay, Commissioner of Minnesota Housing, the state agency charged with financing and advancing affordable housing opportunities, will present current mortgage information and the agency efforts in buyer assistance programs in today's market.
- City staff will highlight city strategy in working with the federal Neighborhood Stabilization Program (NSP) to get foreclosed properties back into homeownership. Learn what the city is doing in promoting neighborhood livability including public safety, housing preservation initiatives, recreation and park amenities, and development activity.
- School Superintendents from IDS #279 and #11 will report on the education scene in Brooklyn Park.
- Green and Sustainable is the focus of the day. Economically Green makes dollars and cents for the city. Come and learn how city activities and practices have a green focus to better serve the residents and respect the environment.
